

Important Information Regarding Trade Bans on Various Products

All products must originate from areas meeting the animal health specification on the pertinent export certificates. In addition, Russian has implemented the following specific bans.

Michigan, Maryland, and Pennsylvania- The following commodities are prohibited to be imported from these states: poultry meat and all types of poultry products, feeds, and feed additives for birds. The ban is believed to cover even heat treated products of poultry origin.